CHANGING YOUR POLITICAL PARTY?

Florida is a closed primary election state. Only voters who are registered members of political parties may vote for respective party candidates or nominees in a primary election, including a presidential preference primary election. In a general election, all registered voters receive the same ballot and may vote for any candidate or question on the ballot. If there are write-in candidates who have qualified for a particular office, a space will be left on the ballot where their name can be written.
